Free Workshops

Please join us and invite your friends and neighbors to attend one of our December estate planning workshops. You don't need reservations!

Workshop Schedule

How Would the Proposed Tax Overhaul Impact You?

Amid a swirl of support and criticism, Congress continues its work on proposed tax legislation. Advocates for older Americans and the disabled are sounding the alarm over certain provisions.

Retirement Account Conflict of Interest Rule Delayed

The Department of Labor's proposed fiduciary rule would require your broker's retirement account recommendations to be based on one factor only: what is best for you. The rule is facing additional delays, so for now, be sure to ask your advisor if he/she is acting as your fiduciary.

Joe and Debbie Karp Visit Iceland

Attorney Joseph Karp and his wife Debbie visited Iceland last October. See a sample of Debbie's photos here.

Prenuptial: Not Always Enough Protection

Do you want the inheritance you leave your child to stay with your child and grandchildren? It's a common concern among clients who have children in second marriages. As Attorney Karp notes, your child's prenuptial alone may not provide you or your child with sufficient protection.

Tax Time Is Approaching. Our CPA Can Help

We are not too far away from April 15. Certified Public Accountant Rebecca Maglio may be retained to do your taxes, even if you are not a client of our firm. Contact her at (561) 472-6066, or email her.

A Roth IRA For The Holidays?

Sure, the kids and grandkids will be happy if you give them "stuff" this holiday season. But if they are employed and you give them funds to establish a Roth IRA or contribute to an existing one, they will be happy long after that "stuff" is forgotten.
